

ICT - Information Communication Technology

Students have access to computers in their classroom, the resource centres on both campuses and the Computer Lab located in the primary campus.

The exploration and use of ICT supports and enhances learning across the Key Learning Areas.

Both campuses have a range of software programs available, along with other technologies such as cameras, data projectors and Smartboards, which support teaching and learning.