

Nurturing Social Intelligence

Children developing competencies to prepare for their role in shaping a changing world.

At Camp Hill State Infants and Primary School we encourage children to actively participate in and contribute to their own learning, and to exercise 'voice' and agency in making responsible choices.

We nurture social intelligence by developing understanding through our Social Learning Program and focusing on:

- Social Knowledge / Skills
- Perspective Taking
- Problem Solving
- Social Perception