

Supporting Special Needs

The Special Education Unit at Camp Hill State Infants and Primary School provides support for students with Autism or an Intellectual Impairment.

Inclusion of children with disabilities in classrooms is maximized as much as possible.

Students also enjoy access to additional programs such as cooking, community visits, supported lunch play, attending PCYC and alternative sport activities.